Club Trésor de Champagne - The Special Club

The past decade has seen a miraculous discovery in the world of Champagne production with the rise of the Grower becoming the spotlight for the largest price to quality ratio the region has ever been witness to. Although the Recoltant Manipulant, or Grower Producer category, still only accounts for less than 5% of purchased Champagne, the wines are gaining recognition as some of the most terroir driven expressions the Champagne region has to offer. Unlike most larger Houses which purchase a vast amount of their grapes, the Recoltant may only use 100% estate grown and family owned grapes and all the production must be done on the grower's property.

At the pinnacle of these extraordinary wines is a group of 27 vigneron who have committed themselves to crafting Champagne of intense complexity and unparalleled standards. The wines are tasted twice before the second fermentation that creates the bubbles and after, and the wine must be in the bottle for a minimum of 3 years. Only after the aging is the wine judged the final time by a jury of peers to decide if the resulting sparkler is worthy of the Special Club designation. One of the most rigorous and exacting groups of winemakers in the world, these bottlings are worth seeking out whenever possible.

Germany

The wines of Germany have long been sought out and coveted by sommeliers and wine collectors for their crystalline purity of flavors and unbelievable ageability. What inspires awe and reverence among connoisseurs is the intense sense of place, or terroir, inherent in these wines that shines through with each sip. Acidity is the lynch pin to the balance of these lithe beauties and brings harmonious balance to what may be even the sweetest of styles.

But just as those who seek out these wines sing their praises so too do they bemoan the confusing system of classifications and labeling. Erstes Gewächs (first class growth), Grosses Gewächs (great growth) or Erste Lage (first class site) are all descriptors you may see on quite expensive bottlings of riesling to denote that they are made in a completely dry style from the greatest vineyards of that producer. A far easier term to note is Trocken or 'dry', while Feinherb refers to a style that is 'pleasantly dry'.
